$23,505 to the City Treasury.

The last meeting of the financial year was called to order at noon yesterday in the office of Secretary Carlos Long in the onice of Secretary Carlos Long in the Kapiolani building. There were still odds and ends of business to clean up, and most of it was disposed of, Secretary Lyng collections Secretary Long collecting $23,505 as the first instalment on the new licenses issued during the past week. This sum was turned over to City Treasurer Mc-Carthy in the afternoon.

Jaeger and Larsen, whose application for a Pauloa hotel license was turned down last week, made an application for a rehearing, which was denied. J. C. Scully, proprietor of the Waikiki Inn, had better success with a similar application, for a rehearing will be granted him on his previous applica-tion for Sunday privileges. This was turned down when first presented, but turned down when list presented, but he will be given an opportunity to ad-dress the board concerning ramors which it is said have been officially reported from the inn. The date of this hearing has not been set.

The anti-salorn league lost in its fight again liquor on the windward side.

Although the board turned down Theodore Bowman's application for a license in the Waiahole neighborhood last week, a similar application made by Macfarlane was granted. The applicant is understood to represent inter-ests of the Ahmmann cannery, who desire, by a legally operated business, to curb the illegal introduction of liquor into its camps.

Ah Choa, the Chinese applicant for the relicersing of the Heeia saloon, was also given a license.
